RECRUITMENT & SELECTION POLICY

Portrane Hockey Club (PHC) will take all reasonable steps to ensure that adults working with young people are suitable and appropriately qualified. Recruitment and selection procedures will apply to all persons with substantial access to young people, whether paid or unpaid. A decision to appoint a Leader is the responsibility of the club and not of any one individual within it. The relevant committees should ratify all recommendations for appointment.

PHC will use the following as a suitable procedure:-

- The responsibilities of the role and the level of experience/qualifications required should be drawn up and clearly stated.
- Before taking on the role the leader should be made aware of the Code of Conduct as it relates to young people and any related guidelines within this document. Before being voted / nominated / appointed to a position which brings them in contact with young people, the leader should be made aware of the Code of Conduct as it relates to young people and any related guidelines within this document. This involves newly recruited volunteers, paid personnel and all volunteers assigned by the for that season.
- New leaders should fill in an information and self declaration form, giving names of two referees who will be contacted verbally and using the self-declaration questions.

See forms:

Confidential Reference Form – Appendix 3

- All new volunteers will undergo an induction; this can be done in an informal manner. Following this, a probationary period will apply. They will be apprenticed to a lead coach @ training and Blitzes.
- New and existing Leaders will sign the appropriate Code of Conduct, including the self-declaration form - Coaches Code of Conduct & Declaration form. (Appendix 2)
- Adequate supervision will be provided; a leader will not have to work alone. At Training & Blitzes there will be a minimum of 2 coaches
- An incident book is in 1st aid kit and is to be written up and signed.

Every effort will be made to manage and support appointed Leaders. Coaching courses and workshops will be provided

Sports Leaders Code of Conduct

Sports Leaders should familiarise themselves with the PHC Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport and in particular with the IHA Code of Ethics and follow the procedures if they suspect or receive complaints of abuse of any sort. Leaders should read below and agree to abide by these terms.

Sports Leaders should

- Be positive during sessions and competitions, praise and encourage effort as well as results
- Put welfare of young person first, strike a balance between this and winning / results
- Encourage fair play and treat participants equally
- Recognise developmental needs, ensuring activities are appropriate for the individual
- Plan and prepare appropriately
- Anyone working with young people must do the Code of Ethics Awareness Course and Child Protection awareness course and hold up-to-date qualifications and be committed to the values and guidelines of IHA
- Involve parents where possible and inform parents when problems arise
- Keep a record of attendance at training and competitions
- Keep a brief record of injury(s) and action taken
- Keep a brief record of problem/action/outcomes, if behavioural problems arise
- Report any concerns in accordance with this Code's reporting procedures
- Encourage young people to respect one another and to expect respect for their worth as individuals regardless of their level of play.
- Be acutely aware of the power that you as a coach develop with your players in the coaching relationships and avoid any sexual intimacy with players that could develop as a result.
- Actively discourage the use of performance- enhancing drugs, the use of alcohol and tobacco and any illegal substance.
- Encourage young people and other coaches to develop and maintain integrity in their relationships with others.

Where possible Sports Leaders should avoid:

- Spending excessive amounts of time with children away from others
- Taking sessions alone
- Taking children to their home
- Taking children on journeys alone in their car

Sports Leaders should not:

- Use any form of punishment or physical force on a child
- Exert undue influence over a participant in order to obtain personal benefit or reward
- Engage in rough physical games, sexually provocative games or allow or engage in inappropriate touching of any kind, and /or make sexually suggestive comments about, or to a child. This includes innuendo, flirting or inappropriate gestures and terms
- Take measurements or engage in certain types of fitness testing without the presence of another adult and permission of the parent(s).

- Undertake any form of therapy (hypnosis etc.) in the training of children
- Do not exploit any coaching relationship to further personal, political, or business interests at the expense of the best interest of your young people.
- Never communicate or form a “friendship” with children online with the intent of arranging to meet them in the ‘real world’.
- Never ask anyone to keep secrets of any kind.
